Aloha, CCAA Family & Friends,

This week's Thirst Quencher doesn't come to you via a document, but instead via two video clips.

Recently, Pastor Rick Bartosik, a dear friend and much respected brother in the faith, forwarded on to me a fascinating video clip. Take the time to watch it, and let an unlikely voice reawaken your passion to share your faith with those around you.

Here's Pastor Rick's introduction of the video featuring Penn Jillette of the famous and eccentric Penn & Teller magician duo:

Penn Jillette is an avowed and vocal atheist. Yet, after being evangelized by a faithful believer, he made this fascinating statement on YouTube:

"...I've always said, you know, that I don't respect people who don't proselytize. I don't respect that at all. If you believe that there's a heaven and hell, and people could be going to hell, or not getting eternal life or whatever, and you think that, well, it's not really worth telling them this because it would make it socially awkward... How much do you have to hate somebody to not proselytize? How much do you have to hate somebody to believe that everlasting life is possible and not tell them that? I mean, if I believed beyond a shadow of a doubt that a truck was coming at you, and you didn't believe it, and that truck was bearing down on you, there is a certain point where I tackle you. And this is more important than that..."

And when you're done, click on the following link <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CVqR6kTu8IE&feature=related> and respond to the challenge in song by Kathy Troccoli to "Go Light Your World." Let there be no doubt; Jesus IS the Light of the World!

Be encouraged....be challenged...act on the opportunities the Holy Spirit makes available to you to shine and share the light of the gospel...and have a great week in the Lord!

Blessings,
Pastor Owen
